

This week in Year 6:

English

- We wrote a first person recount about a gas attack in the trenches, inspired by 'Private Peaceful'.

Maths

- We converted fractions, decimals and percentages.
- We found percentages of amounts.

SPAG

- We used co-ordinating conjunctions.
- We identified subordinating conjunctions.

Next week:

- We will be starting to study an extract from 'Goodnight Mr Tom'.
- We will be finding percentage increases and decreases.
- We will be orienteering at Shorne Country Park.

Homework

1. There is a sheet revising subordinating conjunctions.
2. There is a stapled booklet finding percentages of amounts.
