

Year 4 Weekly News

13th September 2019

This week we have:

- Started our OAA (Outdoor Adventurous Activity) in PE lessons- this week we played Capture the Flag to practise teambuilding and leadership.
- Learned about how food is digested as part of our Science topic this term.
- Revised how to count in tens in French lessons.
- Written a character description about Wonka in English lessons.
- Continued to revise place value in maths lessons- this week we focused on partitioning, exchanging and ordering numbers up to 10,000.

Next week we shall be:

- Learning about the different types of teeth.
- Rounding to the nearest 1000.
- Thinking carefully about the words we use when writing to ensure that they are appropriate for the type of text and audience.

Homework

There is a worksheet about prepositions, due in Wednesday.
Children should aim to spend 20 minutes on Maths Whizz this week outside of lessons.
Homework club is available Monday lunchtime in Year 4 with Miss Parry.

Further information and Key Events

There has been a change of date for the Bikeability training for Year 4. It will now be on Tuesday 29th October.
