- Using our named pebbles to show our choices for lunch-packed lunch or school dinner
- Reading and discussing the following stories 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt', 'Elmer' and 'The Owl Babies'
- Looking carefully at our eyes and learning about our sense of sight
- Thinking of and joining in with actions for 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt'
- Counting actions that cannot be moved-claps, stamps, jumps
- Playing number games in the garden-throwing bean bags into hoops and skittles

Next week we will be:

- Reading the story 'The Stick Man'
- Thinking about Harvest
- Exploring our sense of touch

Homework

- Please enjoy the story book in their book bag. This book has been chosen by your child and it is for you to enjoy, discuss and share together, this will be changed once a week.
- Please refer to the ideas stuck into their 'Busy Book'. Following some feedback, we would just like to clarify timings for homework completion. The books will go home on a Friday and if you choose to carry out any of the activities suggested, then it is useful to have the book returned on the Monday. However, if this is not possible due to a busy weekend, then as long as they are back in school by Wednesday, that is fine! We need some time to look through them and to stick the next tasks in. Thank you. Any further questions, please pop in

Further information and Key Events

- Don't forget to record how many minutes your child 'reads/shares' a book with you each Wednesday onto the book mark stapled inside the front cover of their yellow reading record for Buster Book Club!
