

Year 2 Weekly News

27th September 2019

This week we have:

- Begun our unit on Addition and Subtraction
- Learned how to change a story by changing a main character, and included adjectives to describe characters
- Planned a story using key words and pictures and then used the plan to write it
- Learned about Captain James Cook and his voyages around the world
- Made banoffee biscuits for the Macmillan coffee afternoon

Next week we shall be:

- Learning how to use commas in a list and join the last two items with 'and'
- Apply this skill in our own writing to show what the characters found in a magic treasure chest
- Understood how addition facts are related; eg, $2+5=7$ so $20+50=70$.
- Counted in 10s and understood number bonds to 100 in 10s
- Adding and subtracting in ones
- Learning about Dame Ellen MacArthur and her sailing achievements
- Visiting the library on Tuesday morning

Homework

Spellings, reading and Maths Whizz please .

Sorry for the replication of last week's homework, and thank you for doing the replacement!

We are visiting the library on Tuesday morning and we need an extra adult to accompany us –please come along if you can (and if you have a pre-schooler, they can come too!).

Further information and Key Events

Small steps road safety is every Friday afternoon.
