

Rainbow Class Weekly News

September 27th 2019

This week we have been:

- Focusing on rhyme in story books and phonics
- Matching rhyming pictures and finding the odd one out
- Reading 'Stickman' and talking about the different environments he is in
- Talking about the seasons and going on Autumn walks
- Reading 'The Scarecrows Wedding' and learning how to make our very own scarecrow
- Recognising numbers to 10 and counting out up to 10 objects
- Comparing lengths and ordering objects by size
- Doing dough disco and strengthening our hands and fingers in preparation for writing
- Practicing writing our names
- Understanding how to take turns and why it is important to help people
- Making cakes for the Macmillan coffee morning and appreciating how we all have different tastes
- Listening to celebrations songs and learning about a song's 'pulse'

Next week we will be:

- Reading 'The Enormous Turnip'
- Develop correct pencil grip and continuing to practise writing our names
- Understanding our sense of smell and using new words to describe smells
- In Phonics we will focus on alliteration

Homework

- Please enjoy the story book in their book bag. This book has been chosen by your child and it is for you to enjoy, discuss and share together, this will be changed once a week.
- Please refer to the ideas stuck into their 'Busy Book'. It is useful to have the book returned on the Monday. However, if this is not possible due to a busy weekend, then as long as they are back in school by Wednesday, that is fine!

Further information and Key Events

- We need spare clothes for the children in Rainbow Class. Particularly girl's underwear and socks, if you can, donations would be welcomed.
- Don't forget to record how many minutes your child 'reads/shares' a book with you each Wednesday onto the book mark stapled inside the front cover of their yellow reading record for Buster Book Club.
