

Rainbow Class Weekly News

October 4th 2019

This week we have been:

- Focusing on alliteration in phonics
- Making up silly sentences using the initial sound of our names e.g. Maisie's marvellous, magic, mouse!
- Reading and acting out 'The Enormous Turnip'
- Making leaf collages of hedgehogs, clay hedgehogs and learning facts about hedgehogs!
- Counting out up to 10 objects saying one number for each item
- Checking our counting for accuracy and learning how to make accurate counting easier by lining items up
- More dough disco!
- Understanding how we all like and dislike different things and that this is acceptable and normal
- Learning to ride the balance bikes with 'Cycle Ready'
- Trying out the new school Google Chrome Books

Next week we will be:

- Reading 'Bumblebear' and 'Cleversticks'
- Using different mark making materials to draw circles in an anti clockwise direction
- Understanding our sense of taste and using new words to describe different tastes
- In Phonics we will focus on voice sounds

Homework

- Please refer to the ideas stuck into their 'Busy Book'. We are really enjoying all their efforts and it's lovely to see how they are applying their new learning at home. Thank you as well for uploading videos to Tapestry!

Further information and Key Events

- Don't forget to record how many minutes your child 'reads/shares' a book with you each Wednesday onto the book mark stapled inside the front cover of their yellow reading record for Buster Book Club
- Next Thursday (10th), children are invited to wear something yellow for a donation of 50p to raise funds for the Mental Health Charity-Young Minds
- Have a lovely weekend 😊 Mrs Catmull, Mrs Miller and Miss Humberson
