

Year 2 Weekly News

17th January 2020

This week we have:

- Continued our division unit and recapped odd and even numbers
- Learnt about the 4 types of sentences (statements, commands, questions and exclamations)
- Planned a survival kit
- Tested different materials to plug a hole in a 'boat'
- Continued our Tri-Golf lessons with Mrs Cavanagh from The Lenham School
- Used the Chrome books for TT Rock Stars, Maths Whizz and Spelling Shed

Next week we shall be:

- Discussing our opinions on the right of children to be educated, other features from Malala's Magic Pencil, such as the role of the powerful men and Malala's courage in speaking out#
- Planning and writing a letter to Malala expressing these views and opinions
- Beginning our 'Statistics' unit in maths. This will include tallying, reading interpreting and drawing pictograms

Homework

Thank you so much for all the effort with the homework. The notes you have written to me about how they got on are all really helpful. The working out is great and it will really help your child's progress. Spelling Shed is available for the children to practise their spellings. If they can't remember their log-ins I'll have them in their Reading Records during next week.

Reading and Maths Whizz please. The children also have their Times Table Rock Star log ins in their reading records. Log on to ttrackstars.com. They should play in the 'GARAGE' section as this is the tables I have set.

If you end up with 12x12, you are playing the wrong game!

Little and often is most successful with TT Rock stars. Just encourage them to count in 2s,5s,and 10s to answer.
