Latest Ewe - tube April 2024

Drip drip drop, little April showers...

Have you put away your woolly jumpers early? It's been a bit chilly and blustery here at Heart of Kent Hospice!

The weather hasn't deterred our Shaun team, who have been braving the elements to go to assemblies and finalise placements for your baa-rrilliant sculptures across Maidstone. Planning is also fully underway for our celebration event in the summer!

With the trail just nine weeks away the team are now planning the installation of 108 large and small Shaun sculptures. We are also finalising the Shaun shop locations and the map and marketing around the trail...

Speak to ewe soon!

Michelle, Christie and the Shaun team

Haynes Ford have kindly provided us with our very own Ford Ranger for the Shaun the Sheep Trail!

You can now book Roaming Shaun with us for any events or activities you have during the live trail.

Contact the Shaun Team to find out how you can invite Roaming Shaun to your upcoming events.

Learning & Community Toolkit

Congratulations to the groups and schools who have been fundraising so far. Some of you have already raised over £1000 each for Heart of Kent Hospice! Thank you all for your support.

Do you need inspiration to kick-start your fundraising journey? Head over to the community portal to find free resources and ideas.

Bluebell Walk

Our oldest event is back! The annual Bluebell Walk invites walkers of all ages to enjoy a ramble through the beautiful Kent countryside, surrounded by stunning views of bluebells. Taking place on Sunday 5 May, walkers can choose between a six-mile walk or our very own Shaun the Sheep-themed walk, which is perfect for the whole family.
