Weekly Bulletin – 23rd May 2024

ZUMBA

Just a gentle reminder that many children have said they felt uncomfortable dancing in front of an audience making them not want to join in with the morning Zumba. Therefore, we are asking again that you drop your child off into their lines and leaving the playground promptly.
 Thank you for your continued support.

23rd June 2024

Lenham Parish Council formally awards the

Freedom of the Parish of Lenham to REME

*Parade at 11am
in the Village Square*

The 24th June 2024 is the 80th anniversary of the V1 crashing on the 6th Guards Tank Brigade Workshop (REME) at Newlands Stud near Charing.

The 52 young Craftsmen who perished were laid to rest in the Lenham Cemetery. They are remembered annually by Parishioners and REME from 133 Company, Ashford.

In recognition of this continued link between Lenham and REME, the Parish Council agreed to award the Freedom of the Parish to REME.

To mark the event, on the 23rd June, there will be a display of military vehicles in the village square, a military band will be performing, and a formal parade will be inspected.

The Parish Council and REME trust that Lenham will support this event through attendance on the day. There will be plenty to see and enjoy.
